Organization of Khlafet State

By: Ismat B. Abdulkader

Summary

Political Openness appeared in Turkey after World War 11 through the foundation of parties and organizations. Sufi methods also appeared and started their activity openly or secretly according to the circumstances. The political developments agree to form religious and political parties which shared in the political operation, which admitted the Islamic trend to grow and develop where an intensive Islamic trend tried to from Islamic country in Turkey.

In 1985, after his refuge to Germany, Mateen Kablan declared the foundation of an Intensive Islamic Organization aiming for Islamic Caliphate in Turkey, trying to defeat sciential judging system in Turkey. After the death of the founder, his son Mateen Mufti Oghlo became the leader of the organization and declared himself caliph of Moslems, after that it is developed and its branches spread in all Turkey and Europe.

The organization practised the political activity against Turkey which later started sudden arrest of its members.

Turkey government jointly worked with Germany to faiht the organization and drying its sources. Accordingly Mufti Oghlo, its leader was arrested accusing him of encouraging Killing and was prisoned 4 years.

Though it faced some regulations to stop their activities, the organization continued the activities secretly through distributing secret pamphlets to the Turkish people in Germany.
