Kuwait And The political changes in Iraq 2003 -2006

Dr. Mohammed A. Younis AL –Obaydee
lecturer, Historical and Cultural Studies Department Regional Studies Centre, Mosul University

Abstract

The one who follows up the Kuwaiti attitude from the political changes by which the Iraqi arena is witnessing since the U.S. occupation to Iraq in 2003, he may find that since the beginning of the war the great logistic support presented by the U.S. forces. After the occupation, Kuwait declared its support to Iraqi governments formed after 2003. Head of these governments paid visits to Kuwait to reinforce relations as well as participating in so many meetings and conferences of neighboring states. These meetings were held to support and help Iraq to regain security and stability. Iraqi scene had witnessed an activity of Kuwaiti companies in the fields of power and communication to flourish the economic relations of both countries. However ,their relations after 2003 are still suffering from previous period and the continuous problem then especially the problems of boarders, debts, and the Kuwaiti loses in which Kuwait is still refusing to abandon or even try to reconsider.
